

Design CoMission is a semester-long design internship at LSW Architects in downtown Vancouver. Interns work collaboratively, exploring their passions through design in a safe, no-experience-required setting. Our goal is for each student who graduates from our program to gain clarity in their own unique abilities, gain new skills, and discover pathways to a fulfilling and passionate career.

Applications Due

September 19th, 2025

Interviews

September 22th - October 3rd, 2025

Program Runs

October 6th, 2025 – January 21st, 2026 | Mondays & Wednesdays, 4pm – 6pm

Interested?

- Complete the Design CoMission Application form on our website and upload your resume.
- Sign up for an interview time (click the “Schedule Interview” button after submitting your application).
- Attend your virtual application interview (a link will be provided after scheduling).
- Intern selections will be made after the last day of interviews. Accepted interns will be notified via email. Student who are not selected are encouraged to reapply the following session.
- You may be able to earn school credit by attending our program. Discuss the opportunity with a teacher or career counselor. Verify if your school district has any related requirements or restrictions on your participation.

Questions? Please contact us online:

DesignCoMission.org